STATE RULE SWITCHES AT CONVENTION

Reports from Harrisburg, where Tuesday and Wednesday was held the Republican State Convention seems to indicate that the star of William Flinn, as a party leader in the Keystone state is at last in the ascendancy, and that E. A. Van Valkenberg and Mayor W. A. McGee will stick to Mr. Flinn like brothers, for a time at least, as this trio dictated the complete ticket at the convention and seemed to have the Republican state committee in complete control.

Though shorn of much of his power, there seems to be no disposition on the part of United States Senator Boise Penrose to surrender easily to the victors at the convention, and while he was not on the ground personally, this sentiment could be noted cropping out on all sides, coming from his henchmen who were thick and plenty and mingled in the heat of the battle and the inference is that there are yet other surprises in store; yet other battles must be fought out before the state leadership can be absolutely determined.

To many it appears that the new element was swept into the limelight by the Roosevelt landslide of a few weeks ago, and that the next few months may develop many unexpected changes, as Senator Penrose's silence and absence at the convention, while looked on by some as an acknowledgement, of defeat to many it has behind it a meaning of much more than ordinary import.

True it is, the convention was completely controlled by the adherents of Roosevelt with Wm. Flinn as the recognized state leader, and the battle cry was, "Let the People Rule." Mr. Flinn is elated over his apparent victory, as he has aspired for years to know just how it would make a man feel to be looked up to, and pointed out as the leader of the "state machine."

The ticket chosen has a complete Roosevelt complexion, and while there was a considerable amount of fun connected with the proceedings, there was seemingly no public opposition, in fact nothing more than a general undertone or murmur of unrest, as would be the natural result. G. H. Thomas, editor of the Friday Evening Call of Monessen was signally honored by being named on the ticket as one of the Presidential Electors at Large from the Twenty-second district.

One noticeable point of this convention was that in making selec-

COLORED BAPTISTS MEET IN MONESSEN

Yesterday was a great day for the colored Baptists of Monessen and adjacent counties. The Executive Boards of the Youghiogheny Association and the Western Baptist Association met at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, and after careful considerations merged the two associations into one.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. A. J. Payne of Morgantown W. Va., Revs. J. Moon of Fairchance and W. B. Johnson of Mt. Pleasant conducted the devotional exercises, after which Rev. W. B. Johnson was chosen as temporary chairman, and W. B. Crawford pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, as secretary.

The object of the meeting was then stated by Rev. Payne who also presented a set of resolutions. This was replied to by Rev. L. C. Garland of the Second Baptist Church, Monongahela who in turn offered terms of merging which were unanimously agreed upon.

Rev. T. J. Johnson, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist church of this place was chosen president of the Western Biblical Institute and Editor of the Advocate, a weekly paper which will make its appearance shortly. Rev. W. B. Crawford was elected business manager.

The meeting closed to meet in June at Washington, with the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, of which Rev. R. D. Reddick is pastor.

Many of the visiting ministers stayed for the night services, at which time Rev. P. J. Thompson of Uniontown preached.

Humphries "Does" The Pirates

Bert Humphries, of California, the former Charleroi ball pitcher who worked in the P. & W. Va. team, pitched the Cincinnati Nationals to victory against the Pittsburgh Pirates at the former city. Bert, who is on the pitching staff of the Cincinnati's this season pitched the last six innings and only gave the hard hitting Pirates one bingle.

We favor the examination of all school children by a dentist as well as medical inspectors.

Backward children should by all means have their teeth examined by a competent dentist. We will examine the teeth of any pupil in the schools of Monessen, and tell their parents of any defect without charge.

WORK MOVING ALONG ON PITTSBURGH STEEL ADDITION ---INCREASE CAPITALIZATION

In Pittsburgh yesterday, the stockholders of the Pittsburgh Steel Company at a meeting voted to increase the capital stock to $17,500,000 by the issue of $3,500,000 additional seven per cent cumulative preferred.

This was done in anticipation of the improvements now in progress principally at Monessen, the erection of two blast furnaces, additional open hearth facilities and other work which will naturally be prosecuted as the addition to the company's already large plant nears completion.

The work of excavating for the new furnaces which began in April is progressing nicely and will, it is thought, be completed in early June. Then the work of placing concrete walls, bases, etc., will be prosecuted with dispatch, the structural iron work will follow rapidly and be gotten in shape by fall to house workmen during the winter while working on detail work of construction and completing the large furnaces proper and fitting them up with every modern and up-to-date appliance. In fact the most practical and economical labor saving appliances known to mill industry will be installed, thus giving to Monessen one of the most complete and modern steel plants in the world.

SILVER CUP CONTEST ENDS AT THE DOUGLAS COLLEGE

The Douglas Business College at Charleroi has just completed a cup contest in shorthand and typewriting, and the result is the highest record yet made at any of the Douglas schools. In shorthand Miss Catherine Good was first with 155 words a minute. In typewriting John Irwin and Blanche Jack led in a tie of 59 words per minute. In the speed contest on ordinary everyday manuscript, John Irwin was first with 110 words a minute. The above are records after deductions for errors. Some years ago Prof. Douglas gave a silver cup and for four years it was won and retained in the Charleroi school, but last year it was captured by Connellsville. As the present record is considerably better than that made last year by the Connellsville contestants, it reasonable to believe that the cup will come back home, for another year at least.

CONDEMNED MAN REFUSES TO TALK OR TAKE FOOD

Washington county is to have a hanging. Jan Riberik, an Austrian has been condemned to hang in the jail yard June 11, and ever since he heard the sentence he has maintaned a stolid indifference, refusing to eat or talk. After hearing his fate he spoke: "Don't care must die one time anyway," and returning to his cell he lay down on the cot and soon fell asleep. But since then he has repeatedly refused to eat of the food set before him. After he was found guilty he refused to eat for three days. Now he refuses to talk with his attendants and the officials are beginning to fear that he may yet cheat the gallows.

BRIDGE COMPANY IS ALLOWED INTEREST

Our story yesterday was slightly in error referring to the Belle Vernon bridge matter. The total amount awarded by the jury at Butler was $83,000, $75,000 being the real award and $8,000 computed as interest. It is thought the bridge company will now rest the case and not take an appeal, it being said that individual members of the company have expressed themselves as satisfied with the jury's verdict.

The proceedings for freeing this bridge which crosses the Monongahela river between Speers and Belle Vernon, is an old one and many repairs will be needed to make it up-to-date and fit for travel such as will come to it as a free bridge.

The viewers who made the award of $50,000 are these: S. W. Henshaw, engineer; John R. Byrne and Charles B. Franks of Fayette county and D. M. Campsey, D. S. Taylor and R. V. Johnson, engineer for Washington county. The first proceeding in the matter was a petition of certain residents asking that the bridge be made free January 3, 1910, under an Act of May 8, 1876. In the proceedings the petitioners were represented by John H. Murdoch & Son, the Belle Vernon Bridge company by McIlvain, Vance & Gibson and the two counties by their solicitors.

The bridge is a good steel structure but, because of a wooden floor and the approach from the Washington county side of the long river, will cost about $40,000 for repairs. The approach is long and is built of wood, and thus really necessitates the erection of a steel approach and the replacing of the wooden floor which is badly in need of repair.

Entries for Field Meet

A. in the open events at the coming field and track meet at Charleroi on May 11 are: 100 yard dash Mitchell, Nutt, Price and Lane; 220 yard dash, Lane, Mitchell, Eller and Price and the relay team will be chosen from the following: Manown, Eller, Price, Nutt and Lane.

WE'LL SOON BE ABLE TO GO BY BOAT

The large sidewheel steamer the I. C. Woodward is on the "ways" at Elizabeth for general overhauling, repainting and touching up, to be placed in the Monongahela river trade between Pittsburgh and Fairmont, W. Va., to replace the Greendale which, it is thought, will be placed in other trade down the Ohio.

Since the streets of Monessen were closed to river traffic our people have become sort of weaned away from and less attached to steamboats and the pleasures to be derived from trips of a few hours on the water, but when the underground street to the river at Third street is ready for use, the old state of things will once more be restored; people will begin to travel more by boat to Pittsburgh and back to the small towns up and down the river, and for a good two or three days' outing, to Morgantown or Fairmont. Not because the manner of transit is rapid, but just the opposite. Because it gives time for a relaxation from the hurry and worry of everyday life; time to sit and rest, breathe in the good, pure life-giving air and view the scenery of this great and grand valley, which we have heard old steamboat captains say is not surpassed in the land of Switzerland.

In years past, when the old Pittsburgh, Brownsville, Geneva & Morgantown Packet Co. ran three sidewheel steamers, the arrival of the packet either up or down the river was watched for by the people at each town just as eagerly, and even more so, than they do today the coming and going of trains at railroad stations. Large crowds would gather on the wharves aside from the regular passenges and the hurry and bustle of unloading and loading freight and produce from the lower decks presented a scene second only to that of the landng of larger steamers at lake or ocean parts. People of Monessen have long wanted river advantages, and the promoters of the river transportation companies are just as anxious for the trade that this thriving and fast growing town

The Keystone Party in Pennsylvania is dead, with further obsequies unnecessary. No one doubts that the great body of Republicans and Democrats who turned temporarily to become political followers under the "Keystone" title were sincere in their convictions that revolution within the old parties was necessary. Nor can it be denied that the Keystone rebellion accomplished civic betterment. The revolution awakened the bosses of both big parties in Pennsylvania to a realization that there was limit to how far machine rule may go unrebuked or unchecked. Note the modification of illegitmate license that had run riot throughout the State, and as well the great reform that was accomplished in Philadelphia, when under the Keystone name, a Blankenburg turned that city's government back into the people's control. Keystone was the mere title of a rebellion to attain and restore good government. Keystoners were just as much Republicans and Democrats as they ever were, but their uprising was to purge the old parties of criminal combinations that masqueraded under the honored names of the "Republican" and "Democratic" parties.

But the Keystone Party has passed, its total vote in all Pennsylvania in the recent primary election having been less than 7,000, as against 382,127 in 1910 polled for William H. Berry for the governorship. The official sole survivor of Keystoneism, State Chairman Thomas L. Hicks, has in fact notified former committeemen of that party that he is tired going down into his own pocket for petty expenses, and that if they do not contribute about $400 to hold the contemplated Keystone Party State Convention in Philadelphia on July 5, it will have to be abandoned, which will be the case beyond all question of doubt unless the unexpected happens.

Prevent the mosquito and the fly from breeding and you will put an end to both. Flies breed principally in decayed flesh and manure. They like the dirty alleys where garbage and refuse are scattered about. Keep your streets and your back yards clean and you will deprive the fly of its breeding places and it will cease to multiply. The mosquito breeds in stagnant water The rusty old cans that, half filled with water, lie on dump heaps and in back alleys are what the mosquito likes The barrels of rain water that stand under the eaves of some houses, the stagnant pools in meadows, swamps—all of these are excellent breeding places for the mosquito. The varieties of this insect that infest this part of the country will not, as a rule breed in running water. Therefore drain your swamps and stagnant pools. If you can't dran them pour crude oil over them. This kills the young of the mosquito. Clean up your towns. Don't allow cans and barrels to lie about where they can collect rain water. A clean town will be flyless and mosquitoless. Don't give either of these pests a chance to breed and you will not be troubled by them.

It appears that if the captains of some of the vessels that were cruising in the vicinity of the ill-fated Titanc had known in precisely what direction to travel, or if others had not been stopped by the ice, a different story might have been told and the wretched passengers might have met a different fate. But in this as in other cases the "if" counts for nothing, and yet it always means everything in the final results.

In Washington the police have started in to put a stop to auto speeding on the streets. Already one youth has paid a fine and costs amounting in all to $17.52. The Washington authorities say that all speeders will look alike to them, and that the way for the auto drivers to give Old Man Trouble the slip will be to obey the law. We have seen instances right here in Monessen where it would seem that such procedure migt not be amiss.

"I would rather have a thimble full of brains and have the moral courage to do what I believe to be right, than to have the wisdom of Solomon or Sacrates and be a weak, namby-pamby, pin-headed, moral coward, who is afraid to assert his manhood lest it injure his business," said Evangelist Biederwolf in his discourse on "The Meanest Man in the World" in the tabernacle at Greensburg Monday night, before an audience of about 4,000.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Monessen People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Likely the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that is the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills endorsed by over one hundred thousand people, and by your neighbors in Monessen.

Mrs. H. L. Coleman, 311 Sixth St., Monessen, Pa., says: "A member of my family has used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years and has found them very effective in relieving kidney trouble and backache. I have never used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, but I know that they are deserving of endorsement."

DON'T TELL OF THEIR RICHES

Great Britain Has Many Millionaires Who Keep Quiet About Their Great Wealth.

"While people in Europe marvel at the big incomes of our American magnates," said Arthur Albert Brooks, late of London, who has come to this side for permanent residence, "it must be admitted that there are many men in Great Britain who are blessed with large incomes and are careful to make no reference to the fact that the newspapers. Possibly England has as many millionaires to the population as this country, but it would be disputed offhand by any one who had not taken the pains to look up the figures.

"They are reaching out in England for a higher tax on incomes, and it was the operation of this new law that brought forth the information. In the United Kingdom there are more than 10,000 persons with an income of more than $50,000 a year. They average $63,000 a year each. There are 20 men in commercial pursuits who have an income each of more than $250,000.

"I am told that you can find 20 men in one business block down town in New York city with that income, and anxious to double it. Possibly in some of your industrial towns you have groups of millionaires who will laugh at our claims in England of large incomes. But our average to the population will keep up well.

"The agregate gross income of the inhabitants of the United Kingdom is more than $5,000,000,000, and the average to each inhabitant will compare favorably with the annual incomes of citizens on this side of the water."

KILLING OFF THE MOSQUITO

Much Has Been Done With Crude Petroleum, and the Fish Experiment Works Well.

According to those who have given much time to the question of destroying the mosquito, considerable progress has been made in that direction in the last few years. Many of the breeding places have been wiped out in New Jersey and Staten Island, but unfortunately enough still remain to give the insects plenty of chance to multiply. Crude petroleum has been used with good effect in places where the drainage is bad, but this, of course, can bring only a temporary cessation of breeding.

The fish experiment is said to have been used successfully in the Barbados. All the swamps and ponds were stocked some years ago with a species of fish that feed on the larvae of the mosquito. These fishes multiply rapidly and thrive in the West Indian waters. In a short time there were millions of them in the swamps and pponds, and it was observed that mosquitos were comparatively scarce in the islands.

The success of this experiment led to the stocking of standing waters in Jamaica a year or two ago, and the health authorities of that island report a considerable diminution of fever as a result of the destruction of the mosquito larvae.

"Mule" Stampeded.

It was in the battle of Stone River, a raw Hoosier recruit in one of Grose's regiments got very much interested in the fight. It was the first time he smelled fire. He had been long enough in the army to learn its slang, and he used it zealously. The fellow fought like a tiger. He loaded in a good deal less than "nine times," and fired whenever he could see a head. His whole soul was in it. Every time he leveled and fired he shouted: "Here's your mule," snap bang, "here's your mule!" At about the twentieth round a confederate sharpshooter struck him in the left arm. He looked at the wound with amazement and with a sort of spasm, ejaculated "they've shot me!" then laying down his musket carefully, and stripping off his accoutrements he also laid them down deliberately, and ran to the rear with frantic energy. It was evident that "here's your mule" had stampeded. The officer who described the affair said it was the most ludicrous incident he had ever witnessed on a battlefield. "Rosey" laughed at it until the tears rolled down his cheeks.

Boss Among Vultures.

The most beautifully colored of all vultures belong to the New World family; it is the true king vulture of South American forests. Its plumage is of a delicate cream, with black quills, and the bare head is brilliantly colored with red and orange.

This handsome bird exercises regal authority over black vultures and turkey buzzards, in the same way as the Pondicherry vulture does over griffons, etc., so that if any dissatisfied Indian vulture succeeded in reaching South America, he would find some new bosses awaiting his arrival.

The American boss, however, is not as large and strong as his Indian relative named Pondicherry. Both of these bosses, it should be mentioned, are much more strikingly colored than the subjects over which they exercise authority.—Rosary Magazine.

Awkward.

This is how "salvation" wwas being brought about. A captain in the "Army," noted for his erudition and enthusiasm, said: "If you look to the hens they never so much as take a drink of water without raising their bills in token of2grattiude. Oh, that we were all hens!" To which there was an unanimous response of "Amen!"

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

Doctor's Could Not Help Mrs. Templeton—Regained Health through Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Hooper, Nebraska.—"I am very glad to tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me. For five years I suffered from female troubles so I was scarcely able to do my work. I took doctors' medicines and used local treatments but was not helped. I had such awful bearing down pains and my back was so weak I could hardly walk and could not ride. I often had to sit up nights to sleep and my friends thought I could not live long. At my request my husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I commenced to take it. By the time I had taken the seventh bottle my health had returned and I began doing my washing and was a well woman. At one time for three weeks I did all the work for eighteen boarders with no signs of my old trouble returning. Many have taken your medicine after seeing what it did for me. I would not take $1000 and be where I was. You have my permission to use my name if it will aid anyone."—Mrs. SUSIE TEMPLETON, Hooper, Nebraska.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

Cossack and Saint.

A Paris contemporary by way of illustration as to how some persons discharge their religious obligations relates a story of a Cossack who was overtaken by a terrible storm of thunder and lightning In his terror he prayed to the saint to save him and promised if only he once more reached his home he would sell his horse and the proceeds should be spent in candles in honor of the Saint. The saint, pleased with so generous an offer, stayed the storm and the Cossack reached home in safety.

This is how he discharged his vow. The next day he went to the market with a cock and a horse His method of sale was this: He would only sell the two together, the horse at 30 kopecks (about 15 pence) and the cock at 200 rubles (about £20) After a time the Cossack found a purchaser on these terms and faithful to his vow the Cossack devoted 15 pence to the purchase of candles for the altar of his patron saint

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple Sage Tea. Whenever their hair started out to look dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderful beneficial effect.

Now days we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skilful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and failing hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the "Unabridged" of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ. April 28, 1911.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present world-wide social, religious and political unrest.

As though by instinct the whole creation, while it groans and travails in pain together, waits for, longs for and hopes for the DAY, calling it the "GOLDEN AGE"; yet men grope blindly because not aware of the great Jehovah's gracious purposes And to the wondering gazers, looking at the length and breadth, the height and depth of the love of God, surpassing all expectation, He explains, "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord; for as the heavens are higher than the earth so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55:8, 9.

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is, "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could enumerate, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means, yet oftentimes, it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS ALLOWED SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN FOR THESE LONG SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna."

This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

GET WHAT THEY ARE NOT LOOKING FOR

How does it come that every time any person comes here to look for a job in the mills that they always get drunk the first thing off the reel? This was a queston Burgess Daniel Reamer asked the by standers at a hearing this morning when he had Kolomon Kossick a Slav aged 37 years of McKeesport on the stand on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. According to Kossick's testimony, he left McKeesport Tuesday morning with $14.23 in his pockets and came to Monessen in search of a job. He landed in Monessen at 2:30 in the afternoon and by 5 o'clock was dead drunk so he was taken in charge by a patrolman and landed behind the bars where he was allowed to sleep off the effects. For the last several months men have been coming here in search of work and seemingly the first thing they do when they land in town is to go right out and get a great big beautiful "jag on;" must be the atmosphere that affects them. Kossick was ordered to pay $2.00 for his lodging and meals.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IS DONE BY NIGHT FIRE

Damage to the amount of about $20,000 was done by fire in the building in West Monongahela occupied by the Thatcher-Whitamore Dry Plate Glass company, which started about 10 o'clock at night. The building occupied by the concern was a one-story tile structure owned by R. E. Byers and Joseph A. Herron and was valued at about $6,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The glass company loses between $12,000 and $15,000 on stock which was destroyed.

Profit in Seaweed.

The same species of seaweed used in Japan for the manufacture of kanten exists in inexhaustible abundance on our Pacific coast and at numerous places along the Atlantic coast, while related species, of equal value, are abundant almost everywhere in temperate waters. In this country the product commands high prices, so that the manufacture of seaweed insln glass ought to prove a highly remunerative industry.

can give, and the fact that the street to the river will ere long be ready for opening, is equally good news to both.

The only regret we can see is, that only one packet is talked of for the summer season. The old regime of a boat up stream and one down each day, running on almost perfect schedule time, with another large sidewheeler always tied up in reserve to put in in case of accidents, made a most convenient system and it seems to us that if a company of capitalists could be found with sufficient "backbone" to inaugurate and carry out a transportation policy of especially looking after the comfort, convenience accommodation of the public that it would be profitable. The old Monongahela provides a field equal to any and the people are anxious for the innovation. We would like to see men interested of the types of old Adam Jacobs, J. C. Woodward, Mike Cox, Sam Graham, Pete Donaldson, Abe Gaskill and others equally good, of the old school, who knew the steamboat business from A to Z and all made good—good professonally, and all made fortunes. We hail the day when we can get out and in Monessen by steamer.

tions, the powers that be seemed to get away, to a degree, from the old shop worn, machine plan, and chose men more from the ranks of the common people—that is men of known worth, integrity, etc., but not so much of state-wide-acquaintance as has heretofore been the rule.

One other newspaper man, Anderson H. A STRONG POLITICAL PLAY ON AT THE STAR

At the Star theatre last night a large audience witnessed another of the Kinckerbocker's strong plays, "The Powers That Be," being a typical and true to life portrayal of the ins and outs, and the uncertainties of politics as carried out in the wards of great cities. This play is very much after the style of those great plays, "The District Attorney", "The County Chairman," etc., and furnishes a most excellent field to bring out the ability of the members of the company. It is a play to please every one, and every person there was highly satisfied as the work of the actors won favor for each one, even stronger than had their efforts in the preceding play.

Miss La Telle and Mr. Jackson in the leading roles brought out their talents even more clearly than ever and Mr. Clarke as the all-important ward politician was in a position to do better work than in Wedded and Parted, and he surely did it. Truly he was "it" as a political leader and schemer and as an actor carried off equal honors, as did also Mr. Boardman as the churchly millionare grafter. Will Cunningham and Norma Lynwood put up the comedy role right to the notch, while Louise Browning portrays the out cast mother of mystery in a manner highly creditable to herself and the company. Miss Carter as the old family house-maid does her work naturally and perfectly. In fact every member of the "Knicks" is a star and all are favorites with Monessen play-goers. By all manner of means see this great political play tonight.

The Olympic for Monday and Tuesday is to have the much talked of "Lady Minstrels." Twelve people and a full brass band. A1 show everybody will be crazy to see. 1t
